

Adele McClure (VA)
Vice Chair

Adele McClure is an advocate and activist in Virginia and serves as the Executive Director of the Virginia Legislative Black Caucus. Adele works on issues that include addressing systemic racism, homelessness, housing instability, evictions, food insecurity and expanding criminal justice reform, policing reform, tenants' rights, voting rights, labor rights, and more. Her many civic activities include serving on numerous boards and committees including the Forbes 30 Under 30 Global Board, to which she was elected shortly after as she was named to the Forbes list for her policy work.